

September 13, 2020

Hey folks! Happy Labor Day to everyone, I hope you enjoyed the holiday. As I think back on Sunday I have all sorts of feelings. I'm thankful for the chance to be with our church in person and for the chance to preach to both our modern and traditional services. I also finally feel like this appointment is real - really real if you know what I mean. Seeing many of you in the sanctuary, others of you online, all of it gave me a piece of normalcy that I think my spirit has been searching for without me even being conscious of it.

I hope you will take to heart my invitation to engage in the spiritual practice of stacking stones as a way to remember God's faithfulness even in these crazy times. I know that this week I am remembering how God has been faithful to me and my family by sending us to Columbus and to Wynnton United Methodist Church. Our church and each of you are in my prayers and I hope that we will be seeing much more of each other soon enough!

JOYFUL NOTES FROM THE CHOIR! 🎵

William Kirkpatrick was born in Ireland and immigrated to the United States in the 1800s. He was an accomplished and versatile musician and composer. He wrote tunes to many favorite hymns, among them "Jesus Saves", " 'Tis so Sweet to Trust in Jesus", and "He Hideth My Soul". He wrote both the lyrics and music to the hymn "Lord, I'm Coming Home". This hymn was inspired by an event that took place at one of the Methodist Camp Meetings. William Kirkpatrick was responsible for acquiring soloists and providing the music for the meetings. He became aware that one of the young soloists had not come to know Christ. As he prayed one evening, a song formed in his head. He jotted down "Lord, I'm Coming Home". Later, he gave this hymn to that young soloist, who was so convicted by the words, that he gave his life to Christ at an altar call at the next Camp meeting.

Yours in Christ,
Diana B.
